

Historic Preservation Board Meeting

February 6, 2019

Mesa Verde Room

In attendance: Mitchell Toms, Rebecca Levy, Patricia Lacey, Terry McCabe, Neva Connolly.

Meeting was called to order at 5:00 p.m.

Introduction of those present

Public Input and Comments- none

Approval of Minutes

Motion to approve minutes from January 2019 meeting, with corrections, was made by Rebecca Levy and 2nd by Patricia Lacey. All ayes, motion passed.

New Business

Plans for Historic Preservation Day, Saturday May 18, 2019: Patricia Lacey discussed plans for the Historic Preservation Day, which include meeting at the Cultural Center at 10am for a tour of downtown. A tour of Montezuma Avenue historic homes will proceed at 1pm. Later in the evening, the Cultural Center will have a presentation focused on HerStory.

Old Business

Update on CLG Grant Podcast: Patricia has written the script for the podcast. June Head is ready to narrate. Jill Seyfarth will be interviewed. Patricia is working with Robert Dobry at KSJD.

Other Business

Update from Representatives on Board

Realtor Update: Medicine Man (building eligible for Historic Designation) is for sale.

Cortez Cultural Center: Birdfest, Cocktail Hour, Civic Discourse

Montezuma County Historical Society: Campaign to raise money for museum.

Chamber of Commerce: 2310 E Empire is now a virtual golf facility.

Planning and Zoning: Kiva Montessori is moving forward with a CUP to temporarily occupy two buildings downtown while their school at 601 N. Mildred is under renovation. P&Z recommended Council approval on rezoning Montezuma Park to an Open Zoning District, and recommended that a “bandshell” be an allowed use under the Open Zone.

Meeting adjourned at 5:45 pm.